San Diego San Miguel branch

Your body is an instrument that can be tuned, allowing the word to sing forth, creatively, consciously creating your reality and through that, a deep healing can begin. This is Sacred Speech Work.

Healing the Word Together

Speaking the Foundation Stone

with Christine Burke

A conscious explorative experience of the art of speaking through The Foundation Stone Meditation. We will work with this homeopathic verse and Rudolf Steiner's practical speech exercises with a view to the possibilities we have daily to heal the word in our private and community life.
